Synopsis:

On June 29, 2012, at about 9:06 pm, officers responded to an apartment in the 2800 block of Hickory Place for a report of an assault with a deadly weapon. When officers arrived, they contacted the two victims. The officers were told that at about 8:59 pm, the victims heard pounding on the side of the residence and the front door. After one of the victims opened the door, two unknown masked suspects forced their way into the residence. One of the suspects pointed a gun at one of the victims and told him to get on the ground. The suspect struck the victim on the back of the head with the gun. The second victim was punched in the head and face multiple times and dragged from his bedroom. Both victims were held at gunpoint and forced to lie on the ground in the living room. The suspects threatened to shoot and kill the victims if they did not give the suspects money. The victims gave the suspects about $800.00. After receiving the money, both suspects ran from the residence.

The suspects were seen by witnesses driving away from the location in a black early 2000's Honda Accord two door. Both victims were transported to a local hospital where they received treatment for their minor to moderate injuries, none of which were life-threatening.

At this time the suspects' identities are unknown and this investigation is ongoing.
